CLASS OF 1949

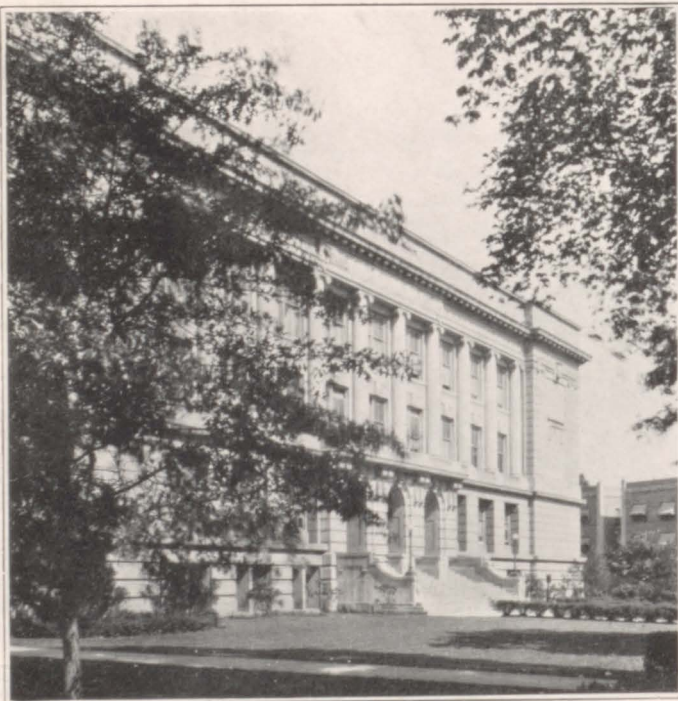

BLOOMFIELD SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL
BLOOMFIELD, NEW JERSEY

"There's a high school in New Jersey
Dear old Bloomfield, bless her name."

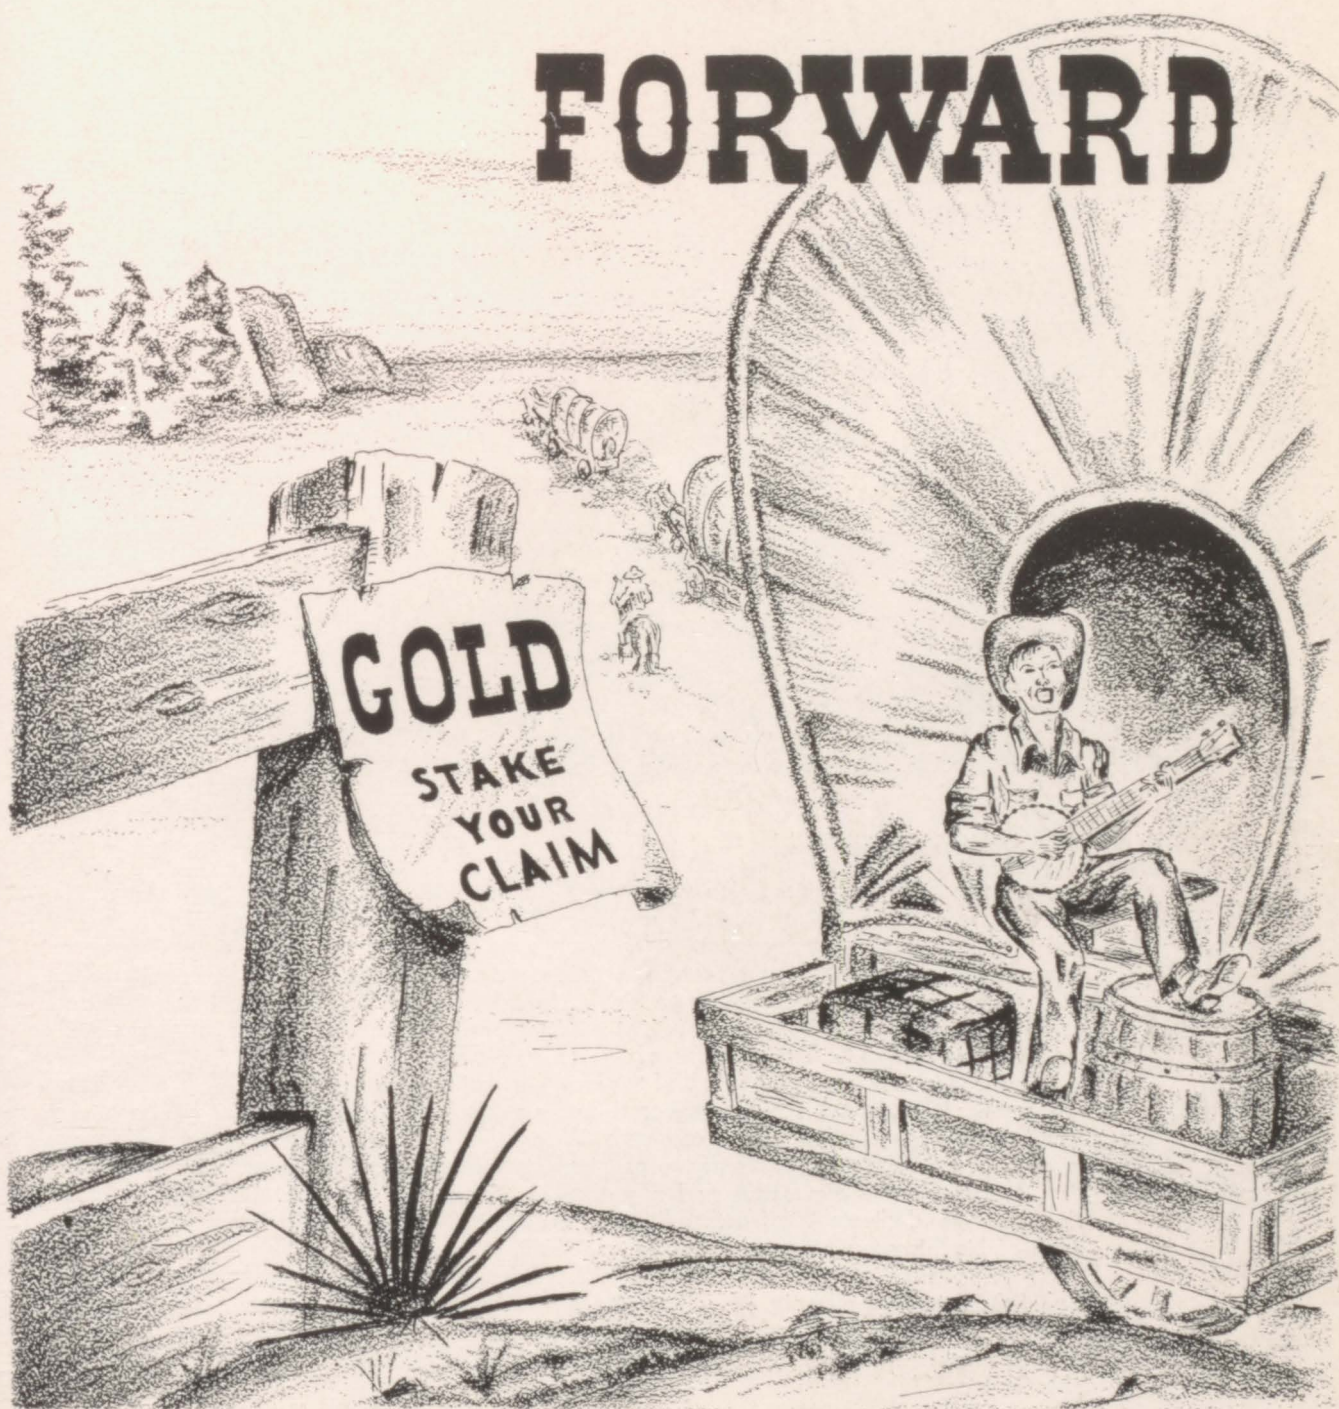

The magic cry "Gold!" - - - the forward, headlong rush westward - - - the grating wagon wheels - - - the anguish of untold hardships - - - these marked the beginning of Gold Rush days in America. The tales of hard work, fortitude, achievements have inspired generations of Americans.

In this '49 edition of MEMORIES, we Seniors in recording our activities and accomplishments during our high school years, are comparing the events in the life of a miner with those in our own lives. Surprisingly, our lives are comparatively similar. The miner's quest forward in search of gold is like our entering school in search of knowledge. To find the gold, the miner needed his implements; to gain his knowledge the senior needed the guidance of the administration. The leaders the miner followed are like our class officers; the gold he was seeking—our knowledge; his pastime—our extra-curricular activities. All these characteristics of the 1849'er correspond to those in the life of the 1949'er.

FORWARD

IN HONOR OF . . .

MR. JAMES P. HAUPIN

Remember how proud you were when you got 100% on your first Solid test? Will you ever forget dashing up to 408 early on a Wednesday morning to see how the basketball team had made out the night before? The bulletin board tacked up outside the room never failed to post all recent newspaper clippings on every sport in its own season. Remember your second day of Trig when you first worked at the blackboard? You emerged from 408 covered with chalk dust. No, you had not started an eraser fight; you had merely discovered the trials and tribulations of the teacher's famed yellow chalk.

These incidents are just a few of the ways in which a certain dignified, distinguished mathematics teacher will be remembered by his students and friends. Yes, it will be a long time before many people associated with Bloomfield High School will forget the kindness, fairness, and friendliness of one of the great sports enthusiasts and fine teachers in the school.

As a token of our thanks and appreciation, as well as our affection, we the Senior Class of 1949 dedicate this fourth edition of MEMORIES to Mr. James P. Haupin in recognition of his thirty-seven years of service to B. H. S.

Prior to his joining our faculty in 1912, Mr. Haupin had graduated from Sugar Grove High School in Pennsylvania, New York State Teachers College in Albany, and Columbia Teachers College in New York. He is not only well known in school, but is outstanding in the town as President of the Lions Club and an active member of the Masonic Order and the Fifth Quarter Club.

As Mr. and Mrs. Haupin retire to their farm at Pottersville, New Jersey, we wish them health and happiness.

IMPLEMENTS

Without his implements - - - pick, pan, knapsack, shovel - - - the miner could not have discovered gold. Nor could the Seniors without the counsel and guidance of the administration and the faculty succeed in gaining their gold, knowledge. Oftimes such tools are overlooked; yet, how much would the Senior accomplish without teachers?

ADVISERS

MISS IRENE F. BRUMMERSTEDT

MISS DOROTHEA J. FISCHER

MR. WILLIAM A. WILLEVER

The snip of scissors - - - the swish of the paper cutter - - - and the clicking of a typewriter are just some of the noises you would hear in the staff room as pictures and type are blended into a class annual. The literary staff, writing, cutting and pasting the senior writeups; the art staff planning, drawing and stapling the layouts; the typing staff, typing and retyping along with the photography staff taking and numbering of pictures, all have worked together conscientiously to create our book. To Miss Fischer, Mr. Willever and Miss Brummerstedt go our deepest gratitude for their part in its production. Without the services of these advisers MEMORIES would never have gone to press.

ADVISERS

MR. FLOYD T. JORDAN

We surely were fortunate to have you as our adviser, Mr. Jordan. Assuming full responsibilities of the class in the early part of our senior year, you have successfully carried out your duties. Without your capable advice and assistance in raising money from various activities throughout our high school career, such as the Junior Prom, the senior play and the selling of Christmas cards, we would not have been able to raise enough money to finance this book. Our sincerest thanks to you, Mr. Jordan.

Floyd T. Jordan

MISS ELSA D. SCHUBERT

Although Miss Schubert served as our class adviser for only two years, she helped to pull us through two most difficult years in our career at B. H. S. For it was when we were sophomores, her aid became invaluable in solving the many perplexing problems confronting us in a new school. Miss Schubert has referred to us as a "grand class to work with". Well, we can say she's a grand adviser for any class to have had and we thank her for her encouragement when we needed it most.

PROSPECTORS

At it was in the mining camps of the '49'ers, so it is in our school. Their camps were composed of different nationalities and faiths, just as our school is today. Each used his gold for his vocation as we will use our knowledge for our future lives. What we have learned has depended upon us, the miners. If we have dug hard and faithfully, this knowledge we have gained will be well worth the effort.

PASTIME

For relaxation, the miner sat around the campfire, sang, composed ballads, strummed out songs on makeshift instruments and passed the time with story-telling. To the recreations of the miners we Seniors have added many of our own. Clubs, athletic meets, rallies, forums have all played their part in the development of our character.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Not too many people notice those three, new, glistening spotlights, high up on the auditorium ceiling. They were some of the many new pieces of equipment needed to make "I Remember Mama" a finished product. No one in the play will ever forget the attractive, authentic scenery, or the hours of research on Norwegian design which preceded its creation. Except for the perfect timing of Mr. Minchin's stage crew in responding to lighting cues, Miss Carrell's costuming work and Miss Fischer's stage designs, the play would not have been so successful. When we consider that "I Remember Mama" was exceptionally difficult to stage, the realistic effect becomes amazing, and we really appreciate the miracle of cooperation which made the play possible.

ON STAGE

"Where's Uncle Elizabeth?"

"Oh, she's backstage lapping up a saucer of milk."

That may sound strange, but if you will hark back to the evenings of December 2, 3, and 4, 1948, the mystery is cleared in a flash of footlights and greasepaint. Uncle Elizabeth was the lively black cat that played an important part in the senior class play, "I Remember Mama". No one will ever forget the excitement and tension before the first performance, or the mixed feelings of sadness and joy which gripped everyone when the curtain closed for the last time on Saturday night.

For two long months the cast, with the able assistance of their very fine director, Mrs. Williams, had prepared for the big event. Many anxious moments were spent by the seniors, as they wondered how their tireless efforts would be received. When their work was finally completed, the acclaim which greeted the class of 1948 was far beyond anyone's expectations. Not only had "I Remember Mama" been by far the greatest financial success in the school's history, but it had also been unanimously adjudged the best senior play ever to be presented.

Who can ever forget the moment when the curtain opened, revealing Mama (Marjorie Fager) and Papa (John O'Brien) in the kitchen of their San Francisco home? Or the sight of Katrin (Nancy Honegger), Nels (John LaCroix), Christine (Bette MacDonald), and Dagmar (Betty Pierson), the children of the family, clad in the garb of fifty years ago? Or the boisterous Uncle Chris (Robert Chiesa), as he waved his finger under the noses of the three aunts (Jane Springstead, Doris Lichter, Arleen Lauchaire)? Or the uproarious antics of Mr. Hyde (Eugene Lambinus) and Mr. Thorkelson (Emil Weiss)?

To this year's class, "I Remember Mama" will be a memory to be treasured throughout the years.

HOLD THAT LINE!

Although the 1948 version of the Bengal grid-iron machine wasn't champion, it was rated a powerhouse among the North Jersey schools with 3 wins, 4 ties, and only 2 defeats.

Coach Foley did his sterling task of putting together a powerful, well-drilled team on the field despite the return of only two regulars from the previous season.

A 13-0 romp over Weequahic inaugurated our season. Then came two successive victories, one over Belleville, 20-0, (highlighted by Fred Day's sparkling 72 yard touchdown gallop on an interception,) and a 26-13 triumph over Paterson East Side. A highly rated and much bigger Newark Central team held the Foleymen to a hard fought 0-0 stalemate. However, in Roosevelt Stadium, Jersey City, a dark horse but scrappy Dickinson eleven upset the Tigers to the tune of 7-0. Three successive ties followed. Bloomfield literally ran rough-shod over a supposedly strong Garfield eleven, stalling many times within the 10 yard stripe. When the dust of battle had cleared, the Boilermakers had settled for a 0-0 tie. Early touchdowns were nullified by both Irvington and Nutley giving both teams 6-6 ties with the Bengals. Turkey Day saw the fighting Tigers go down to a 26-7 defeat at the hands of a championship Montclair aggregation.

Under the able tutoring of Bill Clarken, the Bengal forward wall, sparked by the fine play of Captain Walt Trillhaase and the fiery, aggressive Stevens twins, was one of the most feared around despite its diminutive size.

Hard-driving Tony Nicosia led the Bengal backfield along with the plunging of Tony Fernicola, the wide sweeps of Dave DeMott, and fine quarterbacking from Joe Russomano and Allie Barrow.

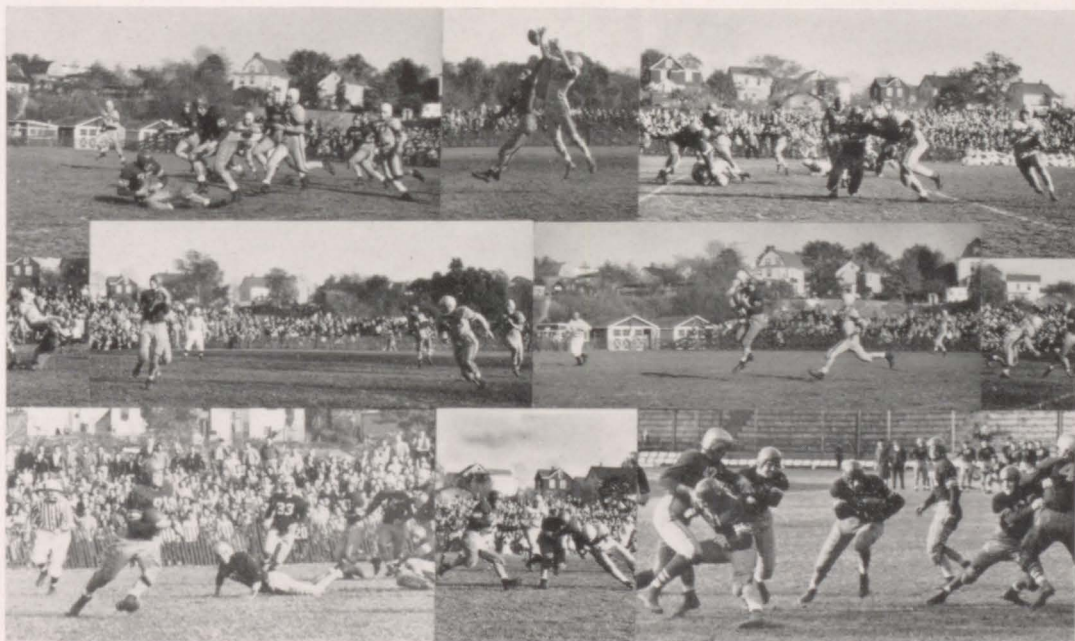

FIRST ROW—DeMott, Fernicola, A. Nicosia, Russomano, Bracaglia, Karnas, Trillhaase, Swerdlow, R. Stevens, F. Stevens, E. Reach, Jannarone, Gregonis.

SECOND ROW—Ayers, Luciano, Condatore, Massa, V. Nicosia, Kessler, McCabe, Traphagen, Ruvo, Day, Tomasko, Kessling, Corragio, Barrow, Hampton.

BETWEEN THE HALVES

TWIRLERS

Whether marching down the side aisle of the school auditorium or marching through mud on a wet football field, these 21 girls added pep, color and glamour to the scene. Under the able direction of Mrs. Seeley, drum majorette Phyllis Grossman led the twirlers through their routines at rallies and at football games.

BAND

Under the able direction of Mr. Raymond Hartman and drum-major Jack Amerman, the B. H. S. Band supplied the musical background for our assemblies and football games. Clad in traditional red and grey uniforms, the 90 boys and girls added much enjoyment to the games with their original marching formations, while the flagwavers added a colorful note.

"ARE YOU READY? . . ."

Ever try cheering for our team without someone to lead you? It's difficult, believe us! Thus the Bengal's cheering section wouldn't go far without the aid of the 5 girls and 5 boys who act as cheerleaders at all our football and basketball games. Helen Dinwoodie is captain, and Mrs. Murchie and Mr. Crosby advisers.

MILITARY DRILL

The 32 senior girls in the Military Drill perform with precision in the Gym Team Exhibition, between the halves of a football game and in Madison Square Garden.

HAIL THE CHAMPS!

*Best of Luck
George Cella*

SEATED — Barlow, Fasulo, Captain Woods, Cerone, Decker, Manager Klebes.

STANDING—Coach Cella, Thompson, Swerdlow, Driscoll, Lutz, Lesniewski, Assistant Coach Moore.

4000 frenzied, jubilant students poured from the stands onto the mammoth Seton Hall gymnasium floor. Six grinning excited boys were hoisted to the shoulders of their schoolmates. Far up in the balcony, a distraught radio announcer tried vainly to drown out the exulting cheers with earmuffs, as he told the audience the happy news: "Bloomfield High School has just won the 1949 Essex County Basketball Championship!"

1949 was a great season for the Bengals, gained after many lean years of basketball competition. Enjoying their second season under the leadership of Coach George Cella, the Bloomfield courtsters played a consistent game all year, and lost only one game on their home floor. An early season highlight was the 40-34 upset of Belleville, the defending county champions; this victory stamped the Bengals as dangerous opposition. Later in the year, Captain Ed Woods led his mates to a 49-41 conquest of a tall Central aggregation, for the ninth triumph of the year. Closing the regular season in strong fashion, Coach Cella's charges whipped Glen Ridge and Kearny to finish with 12 wins against six defeats, despite a suicide schedule.

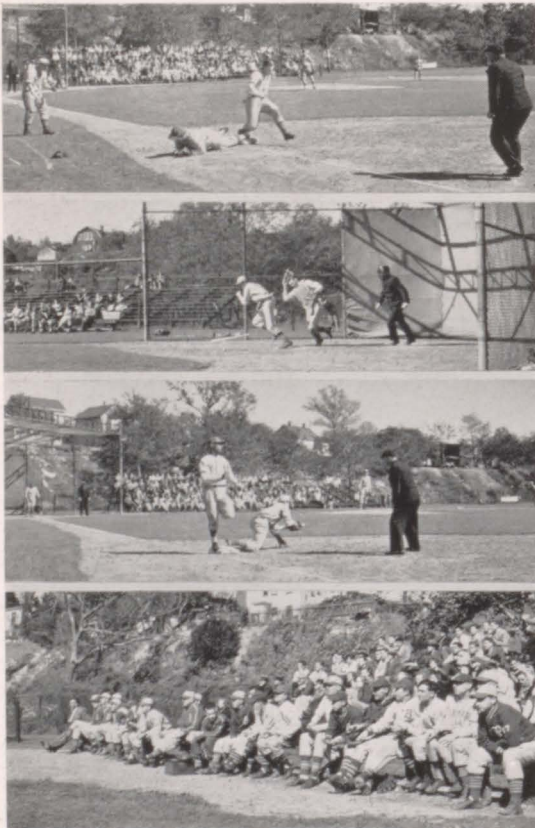

After accepting an invitation to the Essex County Tournament, the Bloomfielders breezed past Barringer and Bloomfield Tech in preliminary games to reach the semifinals. Here they were pitted against a powerful team from Our Lady of the Valley High School in Orange, which had just upset West Orange, the tourney favorite. However, they rolled over Valley, 45-36, and then staged another stunning upset to blast Seton Hall in the final by a score of 48-43. We shall never forget the efforts of this great team. and of the personable Bloomfield basketball mentor, George Cella. They provided us with one of the great thrills of our high school careers.

Last year our Bengal batsmen staggered to a mediocre 5-8 record. But this year Coach Foley, making drastic changes in the line-up, expects to have a much better season. In the pitching department, veterans Jim Cerone and Jack LaStella will be assisted by John Bukowski, a promising sophomore. The post behind the plate will probably be given to Vince Cappiello or Tony Nicosia. The infield combination will be derived from the sextet of Joe Russomano, Leo Luciano and Jim Lotrecchiano, seniors; Roy Morrissey a junior; Tony Sarno and Stan Lipinski, promising sophomores. Bert Dahlstrom will again patrol center field and the other two gardeners will be chosen from Bob Barlow, Nicosia, and Lotrecchiano.

BASEBALL TEAM

BOTTOM ROW—LaStella, Cerone, Lotrecchiano, Beyer, Bahto, Captain Charette, Maples, Cappiello, Dahlstrom, Luciano.
 SECOND ROW—Coach Foley, Testa, Nicosia, Kirwan, McCormick, Lalinga, Barlow, Russomano, Morrissey, Assistant Coach Cella.
 TOP ROW—Decker, Vernotica, Lesniewski, Bradley, Swerdlow, Soucy, Healy, Delizinski, Dann, Semonian, Carey, Brower.

ON YOUR MARK . . .

CROSS COUNTRY

Although the Cross Country Team had a poor season, its achievement was better than its record implied. The meets lost were close. Russell Glatz finished 7 and 10 in the county and state meets respectively.

KNEELING—Gasser, Glatz, Kitchin.
STANDING — Coach Jagiello, Graves, Chapin, Mills.

TRACK

Under their new coach, Mr. Jagiello, the Track Team won 3, lost 6, tied 1. The team was strong in the running events, but weak in the field events. The coach hopes to field a well-rounded team this year with Russ Glatz running the mile, Captain Dick Chapin in the sprint, and Chuck Gasser and Tony Fernicola in the field events. Bob Traphagen and Howard Bender will round out the team.

TRACK

SEATED: FIRST ROW—Glatz, Berg, Schmidt, Gasser, Chapin, Erb, Maffie, McCombie, Henry.

STANDING: SECOND ROW—Coach Jagiello, Woomey, Faison, Traphagen, Armengol, Gibson, Castagno, Scorpati, Yermanian, Steim.

STANDING: THIRD ROW—Ziegler, Gleim, Keesee, Johnson, Gelfand, Fernicola, Sinnenburg.

COACHES

LEFT TO RIGHT—Ralph W. Kunkle, Faculty Manager of Athletics; Joseph S. Moore, Football, Basketball; Norman L. Claxton, Golf; John T. Kulikowski, Football, Baseball, Track; George A. Cella, Head Basketball Coach, Baseball; Cabot D. Kendall, Tennis; Matthew Jagiello, Track, Cross Country; William L. Foley, Head Football, Baseball Coach.

Not present: Vincent Surdi, Fencing; Paul A. Piefke, Football, Baseball.

TEE OFF!

Last year the Bengal Golf Team had a record of 7 wins and 6 losses and placed eighth in the State Tourney out of a field of 16 teams. The first four men shot an average of 89, with Frank Skorupski shooting 87 and Joe Sharenow 88. Jim Douglas was the team's leading point maker, garnering 23½ points and Dick Huhn second with 19½ points. With the graduation of the team's number one man, Frank Skorupski, and veteran Jim Douglas, Coach Norman Claxton will build the team around a junior, Joe Sharenow. Aiding Sharenow will be Phil Rafter, Dick Huhn, and Dave Hoffman.

SWAT IT!

Despite a poor season in 1948, the Bengal netsters have high hopes for the future. Besides a promising crop of sophomores and juniors, Coach Cabot Kendall also has a two-year veteran, Charles Barbaz, as the nucleus of the 1949 squad. The other seniors on the squad are Emil Weiss and John O'Brien, who operate as a doubles combination.

TOUCHE!

In the last few years, Bloomfield has established a reputation as having a top fencing team. The Bengal Foilers, coached by Vin Surdi, were ranked second in the state in '46 and '47, and last year won the State Championship, after beating Barringer 9-4. This year's captain is Ed Ventimiglia.

CALLING ALL GIRLS!

MISS EDITH C. RUSSELL

For her extraordinary coaching of our unsurpassed Archery Team, and for three years of teaching us more than just the fundamentals of gymnastics, the senior girls extend sincere appreciation to Miss Edith Russell. Under her cheerful, expert guidance, the girls learned to perfect a "crab" and to balance doing a "one-shoulder stand" and even more important, to appreciate the essential qualities of a good leader, and the necessity for outstanding, lasting character traits.

Edith C. Russell

1ST ROW: Gibson, Van der Veer, Fredericks, Leiss, Lundelius, Azzolina.
2ND ROW: Magai, Keller, Leek, Ruglio, De Nise.

ROBIN HOODS

Bloomfield High can always boast of its Archery Team. Under the capable direction of Miss Russell, the team has won the National Interscholastic Tournament and the Panzer College Awards for 9 years. Throughout the school season, the group attends various tournaments, including the Eastern at Springfield, Mass. From these meets, the girls never fail to carry home their share of medals or awards. This year's captain is Pat Gibson, and Mary Magai is the manager.

GROUND STICKS

Knee shins, sticks, and balls are all that are needed for hockey. This year there were three teams put forth by the combined efforts of the girls and Mrs. Seely. With the keen competition they had to overcome, the senior girls were triumphant in their attempt to become the champion team of Bloomfield High School this year.

BATTER UP

"Three strikes, Barb, you're out!"

"Come on, Joanie, you can make second base!"

"Yea, Betty, that's two runs today!"

No, the B.H.S. baseball team hasn't adopted feminine names. These cheers and shouts are merely the results of a game of baseball by the girls of our school. As soon as the weather permits, the teams start playing in the playground adjoining the school. Under the direction of Mrs. Myra Seely the girls enjoy themselves immensely and you'd be surprised how some of those girls can sock that ball!

YOUR SERVE

Volley ball has had a vigorous work-out these past few years under the hands of our senior girls. Defeats, upsets, winnings, healthful competition and exercise all blend together to make this sport the fun it is. The girls are proud of their accomplishments and hope that this year's season will be as enjoyable and profitable as last year's.

MRS. MYRA D. SEELY

LEADERS CLUB

Every Wednesday afternoon the Leaders Club meets to discuss and plan the coming week's gym program in order to provide fun and variety for the individual classes. This organization injects a greater sense of leadership and responsibility in the girls.

CRAWLING ALONG

Are you only a beginner or do you want to get your Senior Life Saving badge? Or maybe you want to amaze your summer vacation friends with your diving ability? Whatever it may be, you can perfect your skill at the Montclair YWCA, rain or shine, spring, fall or winter. At the "Y" every girl in B.H.S., for a small fee, can receive instruction in swimming, diving or life saving.

PILE 'EM UP

Every Tuesday and Thursday after school, the Junior and Senior Gym Teams acquire new gymnastic skills, practicing on the rings, ropes, and parallel bars. The highlight of the year was the annual exhibition; this year marked the 35th.

GUARD HER

"Good Sportsmanship" is the theme for girls who come out during the winter to play basketball. Teams that are formed separately by the Senior, Junior and Sophomore girls, compete for the honor of winning a silver basketball. Student volunteers perform the duties of referees, scorers, and timers. Mrs. Seely coaches this most popular sport.

MRS. SEELY

We wish to extend our sincere appreciation to Mrs. Myra Seely whom we senior girls will remember not only as our gym instructor, but also as our true friend. Under her direction, the gym classes have offered advantageous help, fun, and variety throughout the three years.

Myra D. Seely

DO-RE-MI-BOP!

Students in B.H.S. have always been fortunate in having so many worthwhile clubs. Not only have these clubs provided hours of enjoyment for students, but they have also allowed us a great deal of practical experience in planning and working with one another.

Musical talents in the school receive full consideration. The Swing Serenaders have become permanent fixtures at dances and assemblies, while the A Cappella choir performs over the radio and before civic organizations. Furthermore the Musical Monday Club presents an open house performance each spring. In order to provide the students with some classical and semi-classical music, the Orchestra and Band combine to produce an annual instrumental concert.

SCHOLARSHIP, SERVICE . . .

—AND FURTHERMORE . . .

JUST FUN

Each of the language classes also has a club; one of the largest is the Spanish Club, which represents a colorful Pan-American Day assembly, including numerous native songs and dances. Christmas time was featured as usual by the German Club Bazaar. Remember the swell dance the Italian Club gave? and the assembly in which the French Club offered a picturesque array of French melodies and dances? Bloomfield High School can even boast that its Latin Club is the oldest in the entire United States.

Students interested in the theatre enrolled in the Dramatic Club, which presented a play, both here and at Irvington High School. One of the most educational groups is the Chemistry Club, an organization which often hears lectures from outside speakers. The spirit of generosity and fellowship which prevades all our clubs is exemplified by the Christmas Party given at a local day nursery by the Home Economics Club and by the numerous charitable activities of the Latin Club.

Although students have a feeling that they have gained much from membership in these clubs, they will never forget the hours of enjoyment, such as the Math Club picnic or the French Club Christmas Party!

"Passez les devoirs"

"Gallia est omnes divisa . . ."

"Auf Wiedersehen"

"Buon giorno"

¡Ay De Mi!

GIVING OUR TIME AND TALENTS

The service clubs as the name suggests perform many helpful jobs. For instance, the Girl Reserves held a cake and candy sale, the returns from which went towards the purchasing of clothes for two needy children. The brother organization of the Girl Reserves is the Hi-Y. This club gave a splash party at the Montclair "Y" pool, which went over with a bang (or should we say with a splash?). The Library Club certainly performs a service to all B.H.S. students by helping the librarians keep our library an excellent place to find information and pleasure. Guarding our hallowed halls is the work of the Student Patrol. It also guides visitors through the building. Many of the pictures in Memories were taken by members of the Camera Club, which also donated other pictures to the school. We are sure that in the years to come remembrances of B.H.S.'s clubs will provide us with much pleasure.

STUDENT PRINTS

One of the biggest little newspapers this side of the Mississippi is our own STUDENT PRINTS. Being part of it has been fun, work, and more fun. Suppose we peek inside the office and see what's going on.

We might hear, "Bette, what do you think of this head?" And then from behind the typewriter, we hear a laugh and, "Oh, boy, the 'Chatter Platter' is rugged this week!" While deep from that swivel chair is heard a bellow, and "What happened to my track article?"

Do you wonder who these people are, and what their jobs can be? Well, Bette is the very capable editor-in-chief, Bette MacDonald. She has been very ably assisted by Russell Henry, associate editor, and Malcolm Maccubbin, assistant editor. Behind the typewriter is Leila Gohd, feature editor, and the bellow in the swivel chair was emitted by the sports editor, Jack Semonche.

Do these headlines bring back many memories of our three years here at Bloomfield High?

"ALL IN FAVOR" . . .

"The meeting will now come to order" and with these familiar words by Bob Chiesa, president, a meeting of the Bloomfield High School Student Council begins. This group is the governing body of the school, and under the able direction of Mrs. Helen Grabo and Mr. Andrew Power, the 1948-49 council has been outstanding. Few students in the school realize the work that this organization has done. However, what kind of school would we have minus assembly programs and lunch-period dances? And how about those dances on Friday nights after our basketball games? Who plans and supervises these activities? You guessed it, the Student Council!

The council is made up of a president, Bob Chiesa; a vice-president, John O'Brien; two secretaries, Nancy Storm, recording; and Barbara Barry, corresponding; a treasurer, Bob Cooper, plus one representative and an alternate from each homeroom. This organization meets every other Thursday throughout the year, with special meetings when business demands. Each May, elections for officers for the following year are held, and every student in the school has a chance to operate the town's official voting machines.

The main accomplishment of the council in the past year has been the opening of the Student Council Store. The store, which is under the supervision of this group, aided by the Distributive Education classes, is operated solely for the benefit of the students of B. H. S.

Yes, where would Bloomfield High be without her Student Council.

PENNY PINCHERS' PARADISE

In the history of Bloomfield High School 1949 was a year unique in many ways. For the first time, students had an opportunity to gain first hand practical experience in operating a store. Under the direction of Mr. Russell A. Swanson, the distributive education students actually served as retailers for many school items, such as pads, pencils, notebooks, and even such special items as sweat-shirts and kerchiefs with B.H.S. insignia on them. This store, conceived and sponsored by the Student Council, provided the students who took part with valuable, practical experience in merchandising. Although the store was originally a bookroom in the basement, fresh paint, new shelves, and enterprising students soon had begun the operation of a new and novel phase of life in B. H. S. We in the class of 1949 are proud to have witnessed the inauguration of a truly worthy project.

PAINTING THE TOWN

Painting the store windows in the Center on Hallowe'en was a recently acquired activity of our Art Department. The purpose of these colorful designs of Hallowe'en decor was to distract youngsters from their usual Hallowe'en destruction. Various merchants offered the use of their store windows to the art students for these drawings as well as offering prizes for the best design. In conjunction with this novel Hallowe'en celebration, the police sponsored a costume parade and a dance at the high school.

The prize winning scene on Lipton's Store window was designed by Betty Pierson who received aid from Jean Merrell and Dolores Bray. Roger Cook's horror picture on Woolworth's and Jane Sanwald's ghosts on the Star Furniture also received top honors. Assisting them were Elizabeth Arch, Stanley Krawczyski, Mary-Ellen Earl, Leonard Soucy, and Tom Moreck. The pictures not only attracted the attention of everyone, adults as well as youngsters, but also completed their purpose successfully.

The students sketched, enlarged, and executed the pictures under the direction of Miss Dorothea J. Fischer.

ELDORADO

The end of our school life draws to a close. As all good things must end, so we bid farewell to our school - - our friends, our teachers, our carefree life. In the future, chances are we may not meet again - - some to colleges may go, while others to business, some near and others far. Although our paths may never cross, we will always remember pleasantly our past years spent together in our dear Alma Mater.

The miner through his relentless efforts partially achieved his goal - - Eldorado, the mythical city of gold. We, too, have partially achieved our goal - - graduation. But unlike the miner, we will continue to reach for knowledge, each in his own way. Equipped with this knowledge, we face the future with confidence.

"And the time now comes when parting Brings sorrow to each heart."

Our annual has reached completion. The staffs have worked hard and have given their time and energy to the completion of this book, but without the aid of our advisers and professional help this job never could have been finished. We offer our sincere thanks to:

Mr. William Litvany of the Independent Press—the voice on the phone with an answer to our questions.

Mr. Charles Titus of the Independent Press—who stuck by us unfailingly when our writeups ran off the page.

Mr. Franklin Synder of the Scientific Engraving Company—for his skilled efficient work on the completion of our cuts.

Mr. Chester Zimbal and Mr. Tony Dato of Thomas Studios—for the cheerful taking of innumerable pictures.

Mr. Max Klein—the man with the money.

Miss Dorothea Fischer—for her unsurpassed layouts and clever ideas.

Mr. William A. Willever—the person behind the senior pictures and general photography of the book.

Miss Irene Brummerstedt—not only for her guidance and leadership but for her sense of humor which made the writing of MEMORIES fun.

If this book serves its purpose of recalling to mind all of your friends, experiences, and good times, I'm sure those who produced MEMORIES will not have labored in vain.

Remember, these days that have just ended have also brought to an end the happiest days of our lives.

Your editor,

Russell J. Henry
